On 5 July 1953, personnel of the Czech border guard troops in Cheo (N 51/P 37) stated that border guard troops who were due for discharge in about two weeks had to continue serving until June 1954.

Comment. Available information indicated that the term of service would allegedly be prolonged to a period of 30 months in Czechoslovakia.
It remains to be seen whether this measure affects all soldiers or only specialists.
